INSTRUCTIONS

Read the Introduction in the resource booklet before analysing Sources A–K. The introduction will provide a context for your examination of the sources.

You may wish to identify, highlight, or annotate aspects of the sources in the resource booklet. However, this will not be assessed.

In your answers, you should:

- go beyond the immediately obvious information in the sources, in order to draw conclusions
- if appropriate, note relevant question(s) that the sources might raise in a historian's mind, that the historian might wish to investigate further
- where appropriate, consider who created the source, and for what purpose.
